[Important Notice] [1st semester of 2020] Changes of Class Schedule

In light of the situation where the infection of the new coronavirus disease (COVID-19) has been spreading in Japan, we have decided to change the start date of classes for the Spring Semester from April 3 (Fri) to April 14 (Tue) in order to ensure student health and safety and prevent the spread of infection. From April 14 (Tue) to May 8 (Fri), classes will be provided online, and in-person classes will be started on May 11 (Mon).

Rescheduled course registration period is from April 13 (Mon) to April 27 (Mon).

Based on the situation of the infection of the new coronavirus disease (COVID-19), there is a possibility that classes are rescheduled again. Please frequently see this WEB page and the WEB page of Faculty of engineering.

If you have symptoms such as cough, fever, etc. even after classes start, please refrain from coming to the university and go to the nearest medical institution immediately.

Please also see the COVID-19 Health Alerts and Advisories provided on the homepage of Hokkaido University.
